DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments filed November 14, 2007 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. There is no antecedent basis for "said inner volume".

Claims 1 to 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The specification states that the tubular element 12 has "a lowered position in which it allows communication between the area of the hollow member 9 communicating with the outlet fitting 8 and the cavity 4 of the hollow body 3, which in turn is in communication with the inlet fitting 6 connected with the water tank" (page 4, lines 16 to 20). However, there is no description of how this communication is possible. Where is the flow path from the outlet fitting 8 to the cavity 4? How does the cavity 4 communicate with the inlet fitting 6? There is no description and showing of such flow paths. This lack of description would impose an undue burden on one of ordinary skill in the art to make and use the invention.

Applicant argues that "when the tubular element 12 is in the cited lower position, such tubular element 12 is spaced from the hollow member 9, so that the sealed contact between the tubular element 12 and the hollow member 9 is interrupted.” Where is the sealed contact between the tubular element 12 and the hollow member 9, and how is the sealed contact interrupted?

Applicant also argues that since the core is hollow, “it is clear that a flow communication is realized from the cavity 4 and the inlet fitting 6”. However, there is no disclosure of any flow connection between the cavity 4 and the interior of the core 5.

This lack of description would impose an undue burden on one of ordinary skill in the art to make and use the invention.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1 to 4 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 1st and 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
